IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT OF NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

JARRIN JACKSON

Plaintiff,

v.

KELLY GREENOUGH,
M. JOHN KANE IV
GENTNER DRUMMOND

Defendants.

Case No. 4:24-cv-00379-JFH-CDL

JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

On October 9, 2024, Defendants Greenough, Kane, and Drummond failed to plead in response to Plaintiff Jarrin Jackson's case. Plaintiff Jarrin Jackson, standing as one of the people, properly conferred jurisdiction upon this Court, established facts according to law, and now motions for Declaratory Judgment pursuant to Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based on the facts in law.

People have the guaranteed right to privacy, which means they may withhold themselves and their property from public scrutiny if they choose. Courts are forums of public scrutiny. Jurisdiction over private rights is not gained without the swearing to harm. This means that suits filed without swearing to harm are insufficient for gaining jurisdiction over people. As the maxim declares, "No one is to be believed in court but upon his oath." (3 Inst. 79).

On August 19, 2022, a suit was filed against Plaintiff Jarrin Jackson with no swearing to harm. This means jurisdiction over Plaintiff Jackson never existed in Case CJ-22-2609 of the Tulsa District Court and all proceedings occurred without constitutional authority.

Additionally, Plaintiff Jackson's lawful defense of right exposed a pattern of practice by Defendants, in which, as sworn trustees to the Oklahoma Constitution, they ignored Plaintiff Jackson's jurisdictional challenges. Public officials are mere servants and trustees, and they are, at all times, amenable to the people. Whenever one of the people give notice or affidavit to a trustee in government, it is the duty of the trustee to give care according to law and in good faith. Defendants, as the facts prove in this case, failed to give Plaintiff Jackson the duty of care, which delayed justice and subjected Plaintiff Jackson to attacks the Oklahoma Constitution prohibits.

For correct law and good cause, Plaintiff Jarrin Jackson's Motion for Declaratory Judgment pursuant to Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is immediately granted.

IT IS NOW SO ORDERED that the Court enters Declaratory Judgment for Plaintiff Jarrin Jackson against Defendants Greenough, Kane, and Drummond.

IT IS SO ORDERED this _____ day of _____, 2024.
